

Believe in me, worship me
You will be always protected
Harmony, catastrophe
Will you choose to fight or freeze?
Death to the ego
Death to all you think you know
Sacrifice your consent for me
You will heal in truth and beauty

Disciple, I absolve you
So forgive yourself enough to obey the naked truth
That you need to be owned
And you beg to be controlled

Disciple, I absolve you
Absolve you

The magnetic field that I wield
Will reveal all of the bullshit
There's no end to my charity
But I love you more when you beg and adore
And you kneel
Here is your liberation
Here is your chance for true freedom
You got to open up the floodgates
My sycophantic playmate - I need servants

Disciple, I absolve you
So forgive yourself enough to obey the naked truth
That you need to be owned
And you beg to be controlled

You need to be owned
And you need to be controlled
Disciple

Disciple, I absolve you
Absolve you
