

Ghosts

Ian Hunter

I was dreaming of another place when the phone rang by my bed
"You wanna go, I'll take you there - like now" the walrus said
You wanna see the pyramids on the Mississippi Nile Well, grab your heart and grab your soul, this is gonna take a while

And there I was in the lap of the gods with these voices in my head

I saw three crosses on the floor, "Stand there" the walrus said
All the wonders of the world assembled here to jam
The gang of four and plenty more are playin' here for Uncle Sam

I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, turntables spinning round
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts
Why don't ya put the needle down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down

I'm like some kid in a candy store, always been a fan
It's all still here, the atmosphere, it's where it all began
"If you believe," the walrus said "this room comes back to life

The hair was standin' on the back 'o' my head
I must be doing something right

I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, turntables spinning round
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts
Why don't ya put the needle down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down

When every light went down on me, when every star was crossed
You scratched the surface of my soul 'n' you told me who I was

I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, be still my foolish heart I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, 'n' I don't know where to start
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, you showed me what to do
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, 'n' I'm still haunting you
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, turntables spinning round
I'm standin' in a roomful of ghosts, why don't ya put the needl e down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down down down, why don't ya put th e needle down down down
Why don't ya put the needle down
