

Life

Ian Hunter

Easy come, easy go
Just another rock 'n' roll show
Hope you had a great night

When you get home and climb into bed
Just remember what I said
And laugh because it's only life

Fear knows how to kill ya
Stress knows how to kill ya
Take a little sound advice

We all gettin' older
Let some of those chips fall off of your shoulder
And laugh because it's only life

Laugh because it's only
Laugh because it's only
Laugh because it's only life

When you're down remember that
It's all water off a duck's back
And laugh because it's only life

Some of us are born rich
Some of us ain't got a tent to pitch
Most of us just get by

You got to learn to live with it
You've got to remember to smile a little bit
And laugh because it's only life

I ain't talkin' 'bout the serious stuff
Just talkin' about the stupid stuff
The things you do when you get high

Did you blow it on my space?
Did you out of your face?
Well, laugh because it's only life

Laugh because it's only
Laugh because it's only
Laugh because it's only life

When you're down remember that
It's all water off a duck's back
And laugh because it's only life

I hope you had a good time
Hope your time was as good as mine
My you're such a beautiful sight

I can't believe after all of these years
You're still here and I'm still here
Laugh because it's only life

Well, laugh because it's only

Laugh because it's only
Laugh because it's only life

When you're down remember that
It's all water off a duck's back
Laugh because it's only life

Alright
