

Humble

Ian Munsick

He got his hands in the dirt and some boots on his feet
First one to work and the last one to leave
Plenty to say but he don't say much
He's got callouses on his hands but women love his soft touch

Ooh, some gold buckles he don't show
He's been through enough to know that
If it goes up then it's gonna come down
And what goes around comes around

A real man's gonna look you in the eye
Admit it when he's wrong 'cause the truth it don't lie
He ain't too strong to cry or too proud to pray
Give the shirt off his back and naw he ain't afraid to rumble
A cowboy's always humble
A cowboy's always humble

A cowboy's always quick on the draw but he don't waste a shot
Won't ask for nothing but he'll sure give a lot
He's a Chris LeDoux kind of guy, work all day, love all night
Find a girl, hold her tight, raise some kids and raise 'em right

Ooh, some gold buckles he don't show
He's been through enough to know that
Only a fool gonna ride too tall
Because pride comes before the fall

A real man's gonna look you in the eye
Admit it when he's wrong 'cause the truth it don't lie
He ain't too strong to cry or too proud to pray
Give the shirt off his back and naw he ain't afraid to rumble
A cowboy's always humble
A cowboy's always humble
A cowboy's always...

Come on, saddle up
Boys, it's time to man up
Come on, saddle up
Boys, it's time to man up

A real man's gonna look you in the eye
Admit it when he's wrong 'cause the truth it don't lie
He ain't too strong to cry or too proud to pray
Give the shirt off his back and naw he ain't afraid to rumble
A cowboy's always humble
A cowboy's always humble
A cowboy's always humble
