Ian Munsick

I'm a desperate desperado, darling, hellbent on riding home
You're the angel that I'm trying to get to
I'll bust a barbed-wire fence and break the devil's backbone
I ain't slowing down 'til I'm with you

When you hear that sound like rolling thunder
And you feel that ground shake underneath your feet
Girl, that ain't no tornado coming
That's just me gunning for your love
Heart thumping, got me running full speed

You see a dust cloud rising out your bedroom window
You swear it's Jesus riding bareback on a white horse
Well, this ain't a revelation and you'll be my salvation
When I stop waiting for your dress to hit the floor

When you hear that sound like rolling thunder
And you feel that ground shake underneath your feet
Girl, that ain't no tornado coming
That's just me gunning for your love
Heart thumping, got me running full speed

Stampede

I'll stomp across the desert
I'll climb the mountaintop
I'll wade the widest river
Baby, ain't no stopping me
I'll stomp across the desert
I'll climb the mountaintop
I'll wade the widest river
I ain't gonna stop

'Til you hear that sound like rolling thunder
And you feel that ground shake underneath your feet
Girl, that ain't no tornado coming
That's just me gunning for your love
Heart thumping, got me running full speed
