

Low Tide

iann dior

Say you mean well, but you don't come through Lost my faith by believin' in you
Lost my way, took a wrong road, ooh-oooh
I was unsure if we're on the same page
You and your friends have been stayin' out late
If I give you my love, are you really gon' stay?

You can tear my heart to pieces
I'll still give you everything, I

Thought I knew everything, I'm changin' my mind
Thought I knew you until I opened my eyes
In late nights and drunk texts, I realized
You drag me in like a low tide
So I'm losin' my mind
Knowin' that we'll never get it right
Oh, I keep saying I'm fine to take the weight off you
Watchin' you leave like you always do

You drag me in like a low tide

You keep on sayin' that I'm better off
But, baby, you're the only one I want
You love me better when it's only us
You love me different 'cause you know that you could

Tear my heart to pieces
I'll still give you everything, I

Thought I knew everything, I'm changin' my mind
Thought I knew you until I opened my eyes
In late nights and drunk texts, I realized
You drag me in like a low tide
So I'm losin' my mind
Knowin' that we'll never get it right
Oh, I keep saying I'm fine to take the weight off you
Watchin' you leave like you always do

You drag me in like a low tide

You can tear my heart to pieces
I'll still give you everything, I
