

I can't swim in this water
I'm sinking to the bottom
I can't do this all again
Cause in the end I lost a friend

So I keep floating in the ocean
Keep going with the motion
I can't love you anymore
I won't make it back to shore

You keep on complaining
The story keeps changing
You prove me right every time
I even went and put my life on the line

I thought we would make it
But now I am laying
At the bottom of the sea laid on the floor
Water fills my lungs can't breathe anymore

Oooooooooo

Hello, my love, What have you done
No trust cause you broke it you broke it
And I, can't live, for long anymore
I hate that we left it unspoken

I saw the signs but I always denied
Now I'm looking like a fool with my heart in the sky
Well, fuck it
Cause in the end I was left with nothing

I can't swim in this water
I'm sinking to the bottom
I can't do this all again
Cause in the end I lost a friend

So I keep floating in the ocean
Keep going with the motion
I can't love you anymore
I won't make it back to shore

You keep on complaining
The story keeps changing
You prove me right every time
I even went and put my life on the line

I thought we would make it
But now I am laying
At the bottom of the sea laid on the floor
Water fills my lungs can't breathe anymore

Oooooooooo
