

Stay For a While

iann dior

I'm too high, I'm so high, I hear your voice is calling
I won't lie, I can't fly, I'm not afraid of falling
You asked for my love, I can do it
If my heart was enough, I would prove
I blow my smoke and pop my pills
But everything I've done can't numb these feels
And I wished that all my demons go away
All the money for peace, I'd throw away

'Cause lately I've been too wrong
I only seem to do wrong
So, baby, won't you stay for a while?
Baby, won't you stay for a while?
I just wanna feel your touch
Round me now, that's all I trust
So, baby, won't you stay for a while?
Baby, won't you stay for a while? (Don't you run away)

Don't you lie to me
Don't you lie
It feels so wrong but I can't seem to let you go
And I've been up for four nights, I've been messy
Say you never love me just to test me
I hit you in the morning just so we can do this again
Again and again

'Cause lately I've been too wrong
I only seem to do wrong
So, baby, won't you stay for a while?
Baby, won't you stay for a while?
I just wanna feel your touch
Round me now, that's all I trust
So, baby, won't you stay for a while?
Baby, won't you stay for a while?
