

Take

iann dior

I swear things never change, the harder that we try
We've been through everything, what's different this time

Now all you do is take, take, take
Take, take my time and I'll never get it back now
You're a mistake, take, take
It's me that allowed it (It's me)
Oh you faked it all and I can see right through it all
So I made the call, I'm out
Now all you do is take, take, take
Take, take my time and I'll never get it back now

Haha, yeah
I kept rocking now you're selling out
I ain't never learned to love, think I'm running out
Said I'll never do enough, what you talking 'bout
What you talking 'bout, like what you-
'Gon crash the whip, it burn up in flames
Fire eyes in my Dior frames
I guess I'm no better, a heart shaped sweater
Is all that you left to remind, remind me

I swear things never change, the harder that we try
We've been through everything, what's different this time

Now all you do is take, take, take
Take, take my time and I'll never get it back now
You're a mistake, take, take
It's me that allowed it (It's me)
Oh you faked it all and I can see right through it all
So I made the call, I'm out
Now all you do is take, take, take
Take, take my time and I'll never get it back now
