

TATTOOS & U

iann dior

Tattoos and you
Things that I can't undo
Got you both under my skin, I can't refuse
But I'm always gonna find a little room for more
Tattoos and you

They say if it don't kill you, only make you stronger
Turned me to a monster, that's true
Left your mark on me forever
Maybe for the better
Mix the pain and pleasure, that's true

Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, try to cover you up, but it's never enough, oh-oh-oh
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, try to live and forget, but I can never quit

Tattoos and you
Things that I can't undo
Got you both under my skin, I can't refuse
Say that time heals all wounds
But damn if I don't do it all again at a quarter past two
When the liquor starts pouring
I'm always gonna regret it in the morning
Yeah that's true (that's true)
But I'm always gonna find a little room for more
Tattoos and you

Out of my control
I should take it slow
I've been out here drinking all alone
Three nights in a row

Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, try to cover you up, but it's never enough, oh-oh-oh
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, try to live and forget, but I can never quit

Tattoos and you
Things that I can't undo
Got you both under my skin, I can't refuse
Say that time heals all wounds
But damn if I don't do it all again at a quarter past two
When the liquor starts pouring
I'm always gonna regret it in the morning
Yeah that's true (that's true)
But I'm always gonna find a little room for more
