Touch Me

IC3PEAK

Walking through every inch of my head, searching for that space
Space
Where's my space?
Still in fire I reach for your hand, thinking that I know
Nature
What's my nature?

Touch me
Can you touch me?
I need to define if I'm alive tonight
Touch me
Can you touch me?
I need to define if I'm alive tonight

If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny

If I'm alive tonight
If I'm alive tonight
If I'm alive tonight
If I'm alive tonight

Walking through every inch of my head, searching for that space
Space
Where's my space?
Still in fire I reach for your hand, thinking that I know
Nature
What's my nature?

Touch me
Can you touch me?
I need to define if I'm alive tonight
Touch me
Can you touch me?
I need to define if I'm alive tonight

If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
If I could hide in your hand
Be so tiny, be so tiny
