

Forsaken

Ice Ages

The way goes down
Your desires fade away
All your passions, all your hatred
All you fears and all your prayers

Another round
Call the void and don't turn back
Pray for mercy and oblivion
Cry alone in abyss depths

This way goes down
You shall see all what it brings
You should know where it will lead you
You will find there everything

What you deserve:
Iron temples filled with pain
Empty cages, empty spaces
Empty eyes and empty veins

Whatever you need
Make your inner compromise
Stay forever at the frontline
Be forever lost and blind

You'll never forget
Silent screams and tearless cries
Turn look back and face your regret
Shut your crypt and close your eyes

You are not unique
Simple pleasures, rough desires
Lay down deep there, under ground
Or grant your future to the pyre

I know all your needs:
Wicked visions you admire
Let me know you are so hopeless,
I will fill you with my lie
