

FOREVER

Ice Prince

Trouble in the Jungle when my lioness is my heir
Kumbaye Kumbaye yo yo
I look beyond the mountain, I see no star brighter than you, your smile
Kumbaye Kumbaye yo yo

There is nothing sweeter than love
Je je I go follow Mama
Je je
There is nothing sweeter than knowing that you finally found the one
There is nothing sweeter than love
Je je I go follow Mama
Je je
There is nothing sweeter than knowing that you finally found the one

I found my forever, oh eh
My forever na you, oh eh
I found my forever, oh eh
With you, it's forever, girl
I found my forever
My forever na you
I found my forever
With you, it's forever

Let's take it back to Adam and Eve
Kinda hard to believe
I'm in the jungle with the queen
And I'm down on my knees
Asking God to please
Open heavenly breeze
I found a code to open doors without regular keys

I went up to the mountain
I listened to the cloud
I'm missing your kissing
I hope I'm speaking it loud
I don't ever wanna stunt on you
I just wanna put some bandz on you

Baby, you the prettiest
Be my Mona Lisa
I'll be your Da Vinci code
And nobody can get ya
We can get it high up like juice and liquor
Make them ask you, "Who that niqqa?"

Girl, you know you so divine
I'm so inclined, and I can't deny
Ayy ya ya
Girl, you make a gangster cry
And I still wonder why

There is nothing sweeter than love
Je je
Je je I go follow Mama

Je je

There is nothing sweeter than knowing that you finally found the one

I found my forever, oh eh

My forever na you, oh eh

I found my forever, oh eh

With you, it's forever, girl

I found my forever, oh eh

My forever na you, oh eh

I found my forever, oh eh

With you, it's forever
