

Get At You

Ice Prince

Ohh I can't lie to you
Call you my wife and I
Cannot deny for life, for life, for life

I can't believe I'm still stuck out here
Thinking about you, how the fuck I care
Spark my weed, puff inna the air
Mess up the whole damn atmosphere
Men I'm trying to be cool like my heart's not bleeding
I'm even, acting Adam and Eve
Reading all the stuff that you written
I'm shivering
Holy garden of Eden
I'm feeling like Moses with a stick, your legs like the ocean
How they open up quick, It's been a little rough
Thorns and bricks
We fell for the heavens and tongues and dicks
Baby lemme reminding you of this
My life like a movie, you are my Netflix
The rainbows up
Stars gon glitch
Things I was taught back in primary six

Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)

Know you came into my life when I needed you the most
But then you left me, when I needed you the most
I'm all alone and I'm talking to a Ghost
Seem like you right there, yet I can't feel you close
Maybe in another situation
We can plan a sit down and have a conversation
Cause two wrongs never made it right
Don't never treat me, like I was never your favorite
I remember me sitting by the pool
Watching you swim, while I sip something cool
Memories a test, I can never undo
Forgive but remember, that's my number one rule
Maybe if I understand you
When you understand me, we can raise a family
Going separate was never the plan B
Been on the surface, I'm hurting it can't be

Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
I just wanna talk (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)
Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
Girl you still mine (Get at you)

Girl you know I can't lie (Get at you)
I just wanna talk (Get at you)

Ohh I can't lie to you
Call you my wife and I
Cannot deny for life, for life, for life
Ohh I can't lie to you
Call you my wife and I
Cannot deny for life, for life, for life
