

Intro

Ice Prince

I'm in a mind state
Where I just wanna rhyme straight
Apologise to all the fans, tell em' why I'm late
This ain't a blind date
This like a wine taste
I brought a girl from Capetown with a booty and fine face
I'm in a fine place
Still rhyming in divine state
Cruising through a city that's known for the highest crime rate
Living like it's a jungle out here, I'm where the lions lay
I bring a lot of props to the table like it was science day
Looking at the past and the present
See the art of kung fu
You know I mastered the legend
Number one rule
Never turn your back on your reverend
When you pray to the most high
Then seat your ass for a second, yeah
I never planned to be a weapon of mass destruction
Cause I ain't got a plan for no recession
I just keep it gangsta, passive aggression
Make my album sound like a plenary session (Fire and ice)

These days (these days)
Even when the rain don't fall (don't fall)
Always standing tall (I'm standing)
Cause the sun's gon' shine (shine)
These days (these days)
Even when the rain don't fall (don't fall)
Always standing tall (I'm standing)
Cause the sun's gon' shine (shine)

See these days, I'm getting calls from stock brokers
I'm in the building, you're out, the doors are not open
I came up looking like the person wey dey lack lotion
Life was such a bitch, I was writing raps by the vast ocean
Everything happens for a reason (everything happens for a reason)
And so we no dey sweat, no matter the dry season
My neck chain no dey let the poor breathe and Smell like I'm from the garden of Eden

These days
Don't fall
