

Collapse

Iceage

Power of mine
Extending my hands
But feelings collapse
And I can't react

Buildings collapse
Hitting the ground in waves
Washes the streets
Leaving only dirt

Raising my hands
Bricks going up
But feelings collapse
And I can't react

Buildings collapse
Hitting the ground in waves
Washes the streets
Leaving only dirt

Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on Holding on
