

Feds Call

Icewear Vezzo

Dear mama I know you mad at me
But that risk I took I was tryna make the whole fam happy
I know it's late but I had to check up on you so I called to check up on you Couldn't get no answer from you, called back or better yet
Ima write this letter to you just to get this message to you
Know we had some bitter moments it's coo
Oh yeah, just I'm case I never told you baby you a speacial woman
God gon send some blessings to us, I know
You spent yo whole check on my school gear and I ain't been to class the whole school year
Took the rent money gave me shoe fair
We had it hard in Minnesota so we moved here
I done did some shit so this the consequence
Bailed me out on that first rob attempt
But I'm a man now so don't stress mama
Talk to you later cause the depts coming

Hey navy daddy called to tell you hi
Still feel the same pain when I had to tell you bye
I heard yo brother bad as hell and we look just alike
But just know daddy ain't perfect and I can only try
You my first girl by my only wife
I swear without you and my son it be lonely nights
Listen navy daddy love you and y'all first in line
Took everything I got in my only life
We gon travel across the world it's only right
And out of all the wrong done you my only right
Anyway kiss yo brother I'll be home soon talk to you later baby put yo mama on the phone Hello...

Know you hear my tone shaking cause I mean it, I ain't crying it's the phone breaking Nothing? Strong breaking hope you got them home payments
