Dismantled

Icon for Hire

I'm skin on bone
You like to watch me fading, fading
Fading
Still holding on
Won't tell you how I hate it, hate it
Hate it

Got nothing left for you
But I will make it through

Take my heart, go ahead and strip me for parts
Pieces have gone missing, no survival instinct
It's my life, let you use it up one more time
Leaving me in shambles, I'll survive dismantled

Gone as a ghost
My suffering is wasted, wasted
Wasted
I stay composed
But underneath I'm raging, raging
Raging

Got nothing left for you
But I will make it through

Take my heart, go ahead and strip me for parts
Pieces have gone missing, no survival instinct
It's my life, let you use it up one more time
Leaving me in shambles, I'll survive dismantled

I send my regrets and you can keep the resentment
I will never forget you now that I've learned my lesson
Spend the rest of my lifetime trying to unlearn your lies
Only one of us is built to survive

I send my regrets and you can keep the resentment
I will never forget you now that I've learned my lesson
Spend the rest of my lifetime trying to unlearn your lies
Only one of us is built to survive

Take my heart, go ahead and strip me for parts
Pieces have gone missing, no survival instinct
It's my life, let you use it up one more time
Leaving me in shambles, I'll survive dismantled

And if you should ask for my dying breath
Wouldn't know how to say no

Take my heart, go ahead and strip me for parts
Leaving me in shambles, I'll survive dismantled
I'll survive dismantled
