

Regret

Icon of Coil

Whatever truth will reveal tomorrow, it's a lie
A cup of poison will always join us, for a while
And we'll laugh for a while
And we'll die, for a while
And then we'll blame us self for a wild routine
Ground zero, we're back to one

We can't combine
We can't combine

Happy with the life they gave us, from day one
What disappears without a trace, reappears and we just approve
What we need, is a waist, solutions dissolves in our hands
We won't except that we understand
Destruction completes the man

No matter what time will give us
No matter if it slips away
You should have burned me blind
Now I'm shining through

We can't combine
This city laws regret with time,
This splintered doors even if fear remains tomorrow
Or if everything goes away

We can't combine
We can't combine

Shadows merging
People laughing
The sun shines threatening
Concrete tasting
Steel avoiding
Love exploiting
Hate awakening
Missing, can't hide

We can't combine
This city laws regret with time,
This splintered doors even if fear remains tomorrow
Or if everything goes away

We can't combine
This city laws regret with time,
This splintered doors even if fear remains tomorrow
Or if everything goes away

We can't combine
We can't combine
We can't combine

This city laws regret with time,
This splintered doors even if fear remains tomorrow
Or if everything goes away
