

Onward Christian Soldiers

Icons of Filth

I don't mind slaving all my life
For the benefit of others
Who were born into privilege
Who tear the earth apart with their self-importance & greed
Because those who tear the earth apart
With their self-importance & greed Have convinced me that it's all I'm fit for Have convinced me that it's my purpose Have convinced me that it's what I'm here for I don't mind killing all my life
For the benefit of others who were born into privilege
Who tear the earth apart
With the fear they instill with their wars
Because those who tear the earth apart
With the fear they instill with their wars
Have convinced me they are worth dying & killing for Have convinced me god is worth dying & killing for Have convinced me lies are worth dying & killing for I don't mind being a pawn all my life
For the stupidity of others
Who were born into privilege
Who tear the earth apart
With their assurance of life after death
Because those who tear the earth apart
With their assurance of life after death
Have convinced me that my shitty life will be compensated
For when I've finished feeding their mouths & lining their pockets & fighting their wars & believing their lies
I will live peacefully ever after in some imaginary christian utopia
In heaven with god
In harmony
Onward Christian Soldiers
Another life awaits (Lies & assurances of something better in the future always makes us happy with the shit we have at present)
