

Self Styled Superiority

Icons of Filth

Man's got the capability
For the ultimate stupidity
Man can conquer all
Man can destroy it all
Man is so small, yet man can do it all Man is obsessed with power & things that'll give him power
Over all fellow beings to use
If ever he feels threatened or if he feels he's coming second Man sits proudly on top of the pile Proudly on top of the stockpile
All else rots
Away
meanwhile.... Men, women, children & animals get crushed in his systems machinery
Labeled with inferiority
Man's biggest mistake is his self-styled superiority
Man's got the capability for the ultimate stupidity
Man can conquer all
Man can destroy it all
Man is so small, yet man can do it all
Man the most intelligent of all beings?
Yet man is so ignorant to all others feelings Insensitive, incompetent, uncaring man
Swallows up all others cultures
Enemy of the earth with 'progress'
Homo sapiens suppress Blow over cities
So great an achievement
From which nothing can be achieved Setting aside destruction & radioactive bodies of all types, colours & creeds
This is the food on which progress feeds
But surely this ain't progress
It's the regress of man's self-styled superiority
Man's got the capability for the ultimate stupidity
Man can conquer all
Man can destroy it all
Man is so small, yet man can do it all Man has learnt to.... Destroy, murder, rob, hate, con, waste & torture.... & all legally,
then man has learnt nothing
