

Hey U

Ida Corr

Hey you just stop I've had enough
Don't try to change
How I behave
I know you're sure I'm immature
but I just say I love to play Play yeah
Ey ya

All the kids say
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me Na na na na
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me

Hey you it's wrong to carry on remaking me Now can't you see that all I want for you to know is being a grown up sometimes blow
Sometimes blow
Ey ya

All the kids say
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me
Na na na na
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me

The child in me is like a wild baby
But the world outside is the one to see
No one will survive but drive me crazy
When something simple is on the line to key Let me out, lemme do my thang Lemme live and learn before the school bell rang All I need is in the room to breathe I've seen your truth but you don't believe That I can do whatever I want to cut I'm feeling them highs and lows
For giving me the sweetest buzz

Hey you be glad that i'm not sad Live in harmony with the child in me So you and I won't live a lie Cause honesty will set you free Free yeah

Ey ya

All the kids say
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me
I want you to be true

I want you to be true
and to see the child in me
I want you to be true

I want you to be true
and to see the child in me
I want you to be true
and to see the child in me
