

Relatively

Ida Corr

No today's are the same as yesterday
Cause whatever seemed so right
Has now gone bad
And is only distant promises

A second is an hour and
Minute turns to weeks
Everytime that things just ain't right
And you feel as if you're done

Yes is no and up is down
Determined by your moody moods
The way you feel is all you need
To change the deal for good

One day's glory wonder is another day's disaster
Cause everything is relatively
What you're gonna do with it

What ya gonna what ya gonna what ya gonna do
What ya gonna what ya gonna do

What ya gonna what ya gonna what ya gonna do
What ya gonna what ya gonna do

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight

Systematic chaos leads the way into clarity
Depending on the eyes that see
The heart that beats, the soul that lives

Relatively in control if that is what you really seek
No one knows what tomorrow brings and
What you should be ready for

Strength may leave you powerless
If what you need is patience
And knowledge into apathy
Instead of being curious

Take your time feel yourself
Allow your own evolving
In the end all you will have is the
Here and Now beginning

What ya gonna what ya gonna what ya gonna do
What ya gonna what ya gonna do

What ya gonna what ya gonna what ya gonna do

What ya gonna what ya gonna do

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight

Relative is always what it means to you
Cause you can have your creamy cake and eat it too

Relative is always what it means to you
Cause you can have your creamy cake and eat it too

Relative is always what it means to you
Cause you can have your creamy cake and eat it too

Relative is always is always is always is always
Is always what it means to you

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight (what ya gonna what ya gonna do)

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (fast tonight yeah)
Cause love is feeling relatively Close tonight

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (fast tonight yeah)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight (close tonight)

But time is ticking relatively fast tonight
So fast tonight (fast tonight yeah)
Cause love is feeling relatively close tonight
So close tonight

What ya gonna do
