Bad Karma

You better believe in karma Baby, it's gonna sting The wheel of life's gonna do you in So I don't really have to do a thing

You took me outta my money You messed up my love life and my career You better believe in karma Guess it's gonna start gettin' weird right here

Bad karma, oh yeah Baby, that's what you got Bad karma, oh yeah Whether you believe it or not

The universe is gonna getcha You'll be scratchin' the seven year itch You know what I think? Damn, bad karma's a bitch

You better believe in Jesus 'Cause only He can save you now Throw in a saint or two, why don't ya? Three hail Mary's and a Hare Krishna

You made me drink the Kool-Aid You tricked me into thinkin' that Jill means Jack You are the fire spawn of the devil But even he ain't takin' you back, back, back

Bad karma, oh yeah Baby, that's what you got Bad karma, oh yeah Whether you believe it or not

The universe is gonna getcha You'll be scratchin' the seven year itch That's just my opinion Damn, bad karma's a bitch

You better believe in karma Just look at the sorry shape you're in There's a doll with your name and your gloomy face And the department up doin' a rush on your case

You better believe in voodoo, babe I got a long list of your sins There's a word you may have heard of called payback And I'm running out of pills

Bad karma, oh yeah Baby, that's what you got Bad karma, oh yeah Whether you believe it or not

The universe is gonna getcha You'll be scratchin' the seven year itch
