

Devil

Ida Maria

One two three four

I come from the north Grew up in the new clear war With the mid night sun Where the trial streams flow and the eagle flys

I need a devil to warm up my heart I see a devil recognized from a far

You can tell me by the sores on my feet that I've traveled far Still nothing is mine to keep you said you were lonely first time around
And I lost my mind cause I know both you and me were born under the bad side

You're so pretty like the rising sun and I can't quit you baby
Cause you got the devil in your eyes...in your eyes I need a...
