

Saturday,

IDER

"Stop, it's not nice" [*laughter*]

"Just eat it" [*laughter*]

The world is sick and so are we
First one down in my family
Every morning I see I'm awake
Endured another night of the earthquake

Messages coming in, messages coming out
Fever finding places in my brain I've never found
And all the things that we could live without

Oh Saturday
I remember you
When I was eight
And unafraid
Oh Saturday
How I long for you
When I was eight
And unafraid

"That's the reason why I put [?]
It looks like an [?] don't wanna take a nap..."

This is our new normal, this is our new pace
When I missed the kissing and the sun on your face
Thank God they're talking about making Netflix free
Well I'll see you in a year or two at least

Oh Saturday
I remember you
When I was eight
And unafraid
Oh Saturday
How I long for you
When I was eight
And unafraid

[*laughter*] "... what's happening? "
