

The world lights up as you walk down the street
Have you got God at your table for me to meet?
Your arm hung loose from the window of your car
Oh, baby, I know that you're gonna go so far

I prayed all of my love to you
I prayed all of my love to you
Can you feel it?
I sang all of my words to you
I sang all of my words to you
Do you hear it?

Wu baby, wu baby, here I go
Heaven and hell, I love you both
I don't wanna float, baby, let me drown
Suffocate my lungs with the love I found, oh
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend
I really think that
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend

You're stood so close, are you touching my hair?
Sent a shiver down my spine, feel your heat moving through the air
You look so alive, tell me, do you ever care?
Well, I know you got something in your blood that we don't share

I prayed all of my love to you
I prayed all of my love to you
Can you feel it?
I made space in my life for you
I made space in my life for you
Are you in it?

Wu baby, wu baby, here I go
Heaven and hell, I love you both
I don't wanna float, baby, let me drown
Suffocate my lungs with the love I found, oh
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend
I really think that
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend

Falling in love is never a good idea
The deeper I go, the closer I get to fear
I've been here before, but I still don't see any clearer
'Cause falling in love always seems like a good idea

Wu baby, wu baby, here I go
Heaven and hell, I love you both
I don't wanna float, baby, let me drown
Suffocate my lungs with the love I found, oh
Wu baby, wu baby, I'm in deep
I wear my heart so dangerously
I'm brave, baby, yeah, 'cause the fear is sweet
Won't you come and fall off the edge with me? Oh
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend (Wu baby)
I really think that
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend (Wu baby)
Don't you know that

I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend (Wu baby)
I really think that
I could be your girlfriend, I could be your girlfriend (Wu baby, wu baby)
