

Stronger Than Hate

Idina Menzel

Feels like poison
Tastes like bitter wine
Sounds like trouble
Looks like waste time
Have we lost our minds?

You've got the hands that can start a war
You've got the power to make it right
We've got hearts on the line
Can you feel it?
Do you feel it?
So many words that don't mean a thing
Somebody somewhere has got to change
Take it all away
Take your love
Make it stronger than hate

Temper, temper
Always on the rise
Anger is just sadness in disguise
Open your eyes

You've got the hands that can start a war
You've got the power to make it right
We've got hearts on the line
Can you feel it?
Do you feel it?
So many words that don't mean a thing
Somebody somewhere has got to change
Take it all away
Take your love
Make it stronger than hate

I wanna feel it
I wanna hear your love
I wanna taste it
I wanna see it

So many words that don't mean a thing
Somebody somewhere has got to change
We've got hearts on the line
Can you feel it?
Do you feel it?
So many words that don't mean a thing
Somebody somewhere has got to change
Take it all away (take it all away)
Take your love
Make it stronger than hate
You've got the hands that can start a war
You've got the power to make it right (ooh)
We've got hearts on the line
Can you feel it?
Can you feel it?
So many words that don't mean a thing (a thing)
Somebody somewhere has got to change (ooh)
Take it all away
Take your love (make it stronger)
