Mammoth

Idiot Pilot

Play me a song that's accompanied by
Powerful yet delicate
Stabs at your insides
Save for no witness, I'm more then alive
I'm used to all that yellowness
That's leaking from your spine

Before you decide where to lie
Can't you tell how impressed I am?
It's not gonna kill you to try
And repent for your sins

Maybe the point is I'm totally fine
Now that you're not relevant
The elephant can die
Put it to rest just as soon as you like
Get used to no one helping you
You're perfectly unkind

Before you decide where to lie
Can't you tell how impressed I am?
It's not gonna kill you to try
And repent for your sins

And it's not worth troubling
It's not worth troubling
It's not worth troubling
(It's not worth troubling)
It's not worth...
I confess everything
It's not worth troubling
(It's not worth troubling)
I confess everything
It's not worth...
I confess everything
It's not worth troubling
(It's not worth troubling)
I confess...

Before you decide where to lie
Can't you tell how impressed?
It's not gonna kill you to try
And repent for your sins

But it's not worth troubling yourself
