Silver Needle

Idiot Pilot

Stake your claim, you have it all
Cruel imitations see it through
Patiently wait, but all the while
There's nothing to improve

Is happiness derived when positives are trite?
Goodness awaits for your embrace
Come sit by its fire

Can't we all agree?
Does it have to be so difficult?
Everyone is beautiful

There's no shame in being small
Part of the thing that makes you, you
Don't hesitate to demonstrate
The power of the truth

Can't we all agree?
Does it have to be so difficult?
Everyone is beautiful

With the words that you say
(Pronounce, pronounce)
With the things you portray
(Pronounce, pronounce)
From the voice you have known
(Pronounce, pronounce)
What's the point if you don't?
