And I'm sending them shots with no explanation
Bullets rain on your block, precipitation
When me & Jam slide no miscommunication
I was only sixteen when the house got raided

Got 200k in a rainy day fund like let it rain on me
They don't know who to point out
So they going to put the blame on me
I always hear the same story
Let a bitch try to take something from me
I'll show a bitch why she should've never came for it
