

Temporary Love

IDK

Do you think women are looking for a replacement of their father figure when they're in a relationship with a pimp?

No, I think that we're all-

I think that all of us are just searching for love we ain't never had before

Maybe I'll treat her like a lady

She tell all her friends I go crazy

She just here for temporary love

So sincere, hoping I care just enough

Just enough

Just enough
