IDLES

Hey look here
With your holocaust lovers
And your old pullovers
And you faux first smiles again
Claiming you're a nonconformist
To rags, wheels, hide what you feel

What a fear
What a fear
What a fear

Falling into the ocean as it chops and cracks
Dance in eternal darkness
Your lungs are harnessed never to see day again

What a fear
What a fear
What a fear

Fallen on the bathroom floor
Tired of the rising shore
Bleeding on the bathroom floor
Laying on the bathroom floor

What a fear
What a fear
What a fear

I love it how you love me so
Then you come and take my culture and go
I'll never tell you what I know
I'll never tell you what I know

What a fear
What a fear
What a fear

Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?
Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?

You'll never be another lover
Another lover, another lover
You'll only be a poor relation
Poor relation, Poor relation

You'll never find your powerful roar
Powerful roar, powerful roar
You'll never find your powerful roar
Powerful roar, powerful roar

What a fear
What a fear
What a fear
What a fear, fear, fear

Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?
Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?
Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?
Hey, mayday
You wanna save me, save me?
