

THE NEW SENSATION

IDLES

Everybody stand up for a bit
Get up on your feet and get down for a bit
Shake it to the snare and get down to the kick
Shake your tiny tooshie like you don't give a shit

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

So you wanna re-train now?
Jumping from the right to the left brain now
You just gotta change your stance up
And re-train as a dancer and

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

Okay, get on all floors then slap that d-d-d-dancefloor
Then scream 'I'll die for the cause'
What else could your lungs be for and

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

Yeah boy, just break your back
Salute the DJ for the music crack
Yeah girl, just snap that neck
Shake so hard, shake the demons shook dead and

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

Shake your shit like your shit's on fire
Shimmy real hard like you're Richard Pryor
Liar, liar, put your flames to the tyre
Raise that roof like a Notre-Dame spire and

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

Everybody stand up for a bit
Get up on your feet and get down for a bit
Shake it to the snare and get down to the kick
Shake your tiny tooshie like you don't give a shit

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation
Do the new sensation

(Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think
Don't think, just follow, don't think)

Do the new sensation, do the new sensation
(Don't think, just follow, don't think)
Do the new sensation, do the new sensation
(Don't think, just follow, don't think)
Do the new sensation, do the new sensation
(Don't think, just follow, don't think)
Do the new sensation, do the new sensation
