

Welcome Home

Idlewild

I go outside to find the middle of nowhere, everyone needs their own empty stage, just like the sky with no beginning or ending, or like reading a book without a last page,

Stop and turn around and say it with your eyes closed,
you don't need to welcome me home, stop turn around and try looking with your eyes wide open,

As we live our lives through a series of glances,
and you smile without smiling for a whole another year,
I think we need a little more understanding,
I think the future is already here, so I wont ask you to..

Stop and turn around and say it with your eyes closed,
you don't need to welcome me home,
stop and turn around and try looking with your eyes wide open,

Welcome hooOOohome
Welcome hooOOohome

Welcome hooOOohome
Welcome hooOOohome

Hooooooooooooooooooooooooooooome
Hooooooooooooooooooooooooooooome
Hooooooooooooooooooooooooooooome
