

Cursed

If I Were You

Drifting in and out
I think I'm losing myself
Am I the only one
Or can you feel it creeping inside?
I feel it taking over me
(Taking over me)

Cursed to death I'll remain
Everything's all the same
Nothing new to this played out life
Will you remember me
Six feet deep in my grave?
Cursed to death I'll remain
(Cursed to death I'll remain)

Too many times I've fallen to the inner hurt
Remember me when I'm gone
When I'm under the dirt
And who the fuck will miss my crumbling self?
The universe has fucked the cards that
I have been dealt
The universe has fucked the cards I've been dealt

Cursed to death I'll remain
Everything's all the same
Nothing new to this played out life
Will you remember me
Six feet deep in my grave?
Cursed to death I'll remain
(Cursed to death I'll remain)
(Cursed to death I'll remain)
Everything's all the same
Will you remember me
Six feet deep in my grave?
Cursed to death I'll remain
(I'll remain)

If this is just a dream...
Then why do I feel empty
I just can't feel anymore

Anymore
If this is just a dream...
Then why do I feel empty
I just can't feel anymore
I can't feel anymore

As I reach for the sky
And wonder where I belong
I never found my way out of this life
Bury this soul far down

Just slam the casket
Straight to the fucking ground
I'm so lost and I don't want to be found
Slam the casket down
Straight to the fucking ground

Don't want to be found
