

Hate Me

If I Were You

You make me sick!

A crooked smile, a heart of stone
Betray, two faced, you're a fucking joke
I know you all so well
Always try to bring me down
But I can see through you
Don't think you have a chance to gain the upper hand
You were never close

You will never be who I am
I'm not backing down so go and try to break me
I won't let you get the best of me, hate me
But I promise you won't forget me
This is who I am, I won't let you get the best of me, go
I won't let you get the best of me

You run your mouth then try to hide
Let everyone fight your own fight
Step up, step up, I want to see what you're made of You're nothing more than a coward
You're a fake and it shows
Always finding ways to reach a new low
Coward, worry about yourself
Keep my name out your mouth 'cause in the end

You will never be who I am
I'm not backing down so go and try to break me
I won't let you get the best of me, hate me
But I promise you won't forget me
This is who I am, I won't let you get the best of me

Hate me, break me
Hate me, break
This is who I am
