

Trouble

Iggy Azalea

Right, I shoulda know you were bad news from the bad boy demeanor and the tattoos cuz most guy only want one thing but Im undecided, tryna figure out if that's you either way thought, I think you're worth a test drive cuz ooso you're so much better than next guy and a little trouble only makes for a goodtime so all the normal red flags be a good sign

Don't you come here thinking you balling ain't down for it
you seem like trouble to me I can tell by the way that you lean and the way that you kiss your teeth and you turn up so fresh and clean smells like trouble to me opposites attract, I guess this is that good girl bad guy, what a perfect match and if we ooo, you gon' want to pay back tithes cuz when you finish you gon' feel like you was baptized see baby now you fiendin' for a test drive cuz you don't wanna lose your ride to the next guy

and a little trouble only makes for a goodtime

and the way that you kiss your teeth

I got it bad for him in the worst way dear Lord, how'd I get in this position and I shoulda never got involved in the first place but second place never get recognition, hmmm see whyt he doin' to make me have to shout it out got a hold on me, that's without doubt so clear that he's a trouble starter but I ain't a saint neither and these ain't no waters, hmm

Just cuz all the girls are falling at your feet don't mean nothing to me till you show me where it's at
