seems disgraceful
how many faces i've touched seen so many stranger now that i don't remember any of their names i just push away

never been in love with anyone ever never been in love with anyone finding out the hardest way increasing your numbers only makes your emotions fade really am letting it slip away i can't get a grip - i can't get a grip all alone - all alone someone out thee has got to know how to hide your lies when your mouths all full because it's getting late in the day i'm going to die this way all alone
