Execution Without Trial

Ignitor

Riding under the banner
Proudly serving both king and throne
Dodging death threats in darkness and storms
The soul of our mission stronger than stone

Horseback armes in our arsenal
Weaponry of the finest steel
Ultimate warriors trained to destroy
All who break the circle

For high treason, and high crimes
Detained for shaming the king
Beware all traitors, and resistors
Your appeal will be met with denial

For high treason, and high crimes
Your suffering will not last through the night
Beware all traitors, we will enjoy
Your execution without trial

Your remains will be displayed
For drastic example
The sight of your blood will spread fear
No nightmares take over your soul

Reapers, slicing
Your flesh will mix well with the earth
Namesake, erasing
No evidence of your demise

War vultures soaring high above
Their talons shredding your soul
No memory of your final moments
Your existence no one will know

No angels to protect you now
Your corpse used only as symbol
A message of the king's army
To gain the king tyrant's control

Riding under the banner
Proudly serving both king and throne
Dodging death threats in darkness and storms
The soul of our mission stronger than stone

Horseback armes in our arsenal
Weaponry of the finest steel
Ultimate warriors trained to destroy
All who break the circle

For high treason, and high crimes
Detained for shaming the king
Beware all traitors, and resistors
Your appeal will be met with denial

For high treason, and high crimes
Your suffering will not last through the night

Beware all traitors, we will enjoy
Your execution without trial

For high treason, and high crimes
Your suffering will not last through the night
Beware all traitors, we will enjoy
Your suffering will not last thru the night
All the traitors beware of your
Execution without trial
