

We Are Ignitor

Ignitor

At our darkest dawn
When all hope has gone
Away

While some beg for sleep
We must carry on
Awake

While some the soldiers
Shoulder to shoulder
We stand together
Surrender, never

As we gather speed
Of thunderous steed
Away

Just one, single spark
Is all that we need
The flame

We are IGNITOR
We defend what's true and right
Cracking the Wire
Crushing skulls at the speed of light

We are IGNITOR
Fate will decide who lives or dies
Warriors and Fighters
United in metal
We lay down our lives

We raise our banners
Goat horns will hammer
Invoke the warrior
Darkness destroyer

As dark turns to dawn
Resistance now gone
Away

With victory now won
We must vigil on
We Reign

We are IGNITOR
We defend what's true and right
Cracking the Wire
Crushing skulls at the speed of light

We are IGNITOR
Fate will decide who lives or dies
Warriors and Fighters
United in metal
We lay down our lives

Raise the Horns

Crown of Thorns

We are IGNITOR
Cracking the Wire
Crushing skulls at speed of light

We are IGNITOR
Fate will decide who lives or dies
United in metal
We lay down our lives
