

I Don't Know

iiO

There was a time when you were so beautiful
You blinded all in view
You owned the smile that made heaven bow down
The sun looked on next to you

Everything was added to the diamond streaks
And all that had a meaning was for you to keep The silver cuts were soaring, hoping that they could Pull you up with them, you up with them

So then how could someone so high fall so low
I don't know, I don't know, I don't know
And then why would someone never wanna grow
I don't know, I don't know, I don't know

I don't know - I don't know - I don't know - I don't know

You could have thought that it would turn out this way
Nobody had a clue
Now all the vices that you once used to hail
Have become part of you

I remember when you had a different glow
Happiness and laughter in the words you spoke
The aura of your presence hasn't been the same
It's not the same - you're not the same
