I have fever in my chemicals
You left me here among the skeletons
And gravity can only hold so long
All the heroes here are dead and gone

I thought I had endless energies
Send my love to the authorities
And pull all the stitches
Watch the world as it unhinges

Don't shut me down
Don't shut me down
Keep me alive
Don't shut me down
Don't shut me down
Keep me alive

The panic button is worn
Just the writing left which says
"Hit this when everything is wrong"
Everything's wrong

Don't shut me down...

You're the one my soul craves
You're the one my soul craves

Don't shut me down...

Alive
Alive...
