

One Day

Iko

Take it all in Life is too much to drink
All at once
Drives you crazy
How do you hold it all
Together like you do

One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
In the front of my heart

Out of nowhere
Like a calmness through your veins
Crash site
I have feelings
They go deep into the ground
And where you stand

One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
In the front of my heart

Dream bigger
Like an architect of love
In me
And I am richer
For knowing you all this time
Oh all this time

I've been saving this
Guilty for so long

There's a moment
There's a choir in the song
It sings your name

One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
One day I'll be
Walking in your shoes
I hope that I'm you
In the front of my heart
