

Waiting to Fall

Iko

Waiting to fall
Is like not waiting at all
It's like being born, into a regret
Waiting to fall

Send me a tidal wave
When I can sing against
It's like being born, into a regret
Waiting to fall

Learning to crawl alone
Is like not learning at all
You're slowly being torn
Into the thing that you were
Waiting to fall

And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
Save all you see
Save it for me

And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
And the lower you fall
The higher you'll be
Save all you see
Save it for me
Save all you see
Save it for me
