

Wrecking Ball

Iko

Who am I to say that this is what you want?
And if this missile strays there'll be another war
You arrive in town with your pretty friends
With your pretty friends

Come out with your lights on, I wanna see
You playing my heartstrings a symphony
With you looking like that
You wrecking ball me

Who am I to say that I'm the only one
To have seen the sun in your eyes at dawn?
And I donate, I donate my soul to your worthy cause
To your worthy cause

Come out with your lights on, I wanna see...

Come out with your lights on, I wanna see...

Come out with your lights on, I wanna see...

And if it's all in my head
If I'm holding you back then
Then I'd rather be dead
