

Another Heart

ILIRA

Got nothing to say, no
I don't wanna talk
Tired of it all, mmh
If love is the language
We don't understand it
Tell me what went wrong (no)

There's a voice in my head
Saying I should let go
If there's still a chance
Baby I should just grow

Another heart, 'nother heart
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
So go ahead, rip it out
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
I'll just grow another heart
I'll just grow another heart
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll be fine

I got temper and heat, but
You like it cold
My blood pressure's running low, mmh
You know what to say to Ruin it all
Put my head against the wall

There's a voice in my head
Saying I should let go
If there's still a chance
Baby I should just grow

Another heart, 'nother heart
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
So go ahead, rip it out
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
I'll just grow another heart
I'll just grow another heart
I'll just grow another heart
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
