Would you, would you love me
Would you hold me
If I told you that it hurts
Would you, would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boom, boom, boom
Boy, you better be running, yeah
Boom, boom, boom
Pull the trigger with no warning, yeah

Too many people
Broke my heart and I got lonely
Like Lady Monroe
I just need someone to love me when

When I'm moody in the morning
When I'm lonely in the night
Someone to hold me when I'm falling
And to love me with no pride

Boom, boom, boom

Would you, would you love me
Would you hold me
If I told you that it hurts
Would you, would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boy, you better run, run
Call you like a siren
'Cause I got you under my spell
Would you, would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive...
(Like dynamite)

Boom, boom, boom
Boy, you better be running, yeah
Boom, boom, boom
Pull the trigger with no warning, yeah

They call me crazy
'Cause I run my mouth like slim shady
I got no control
I just need someone to love me when

When I'm moody in the morning
When I'm lonely in the night
Someone to hold me when I'm falling
And to love me with no pride

Boom, boom, boom

Would you, would you love me

Would you hold me
If I told you that it hurts
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boy, you better run, run
'Cause I got you under my spell
Would you touch me
So explosive...
(Like dynamite)
