

Evolution

ILIRA

Tell me, can you breathe?
Do you feel like my love is weighing heavy on your head?
Tell me, are you free when you're with me?
Do you ever long to touch somebody else?

No, I don't care 'bout evolution
'Cause all I need is you, so
Why don't you stay mine?

Even if our love runs out
Even if our light turns out
Even if we don't feel like now
Don't feel like now
Don't feel like now
Baby, I

Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody else but you
Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody

Tell me, would you leave? Honestly
If there was another woman on your mind?
Tell me would you see the good in me?
God, I hope this love is not another lie

No, I don't care 'bout evolution
'Cause all I need is you, so
Why don't you stay mine?

Even if our love runs out
Even if our light turns out
Even if we don't feel like now
Don't feel like now
Don't feel like now
Baby, I

Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody else but you
Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody

Even if I, even if I
Even if I, even if I
Guess only love can hurt like this
Even if I, even if I
Even if I, even if I
Guess only love can hurt like this

Even if our love runs out
Even if our light turns out
Even if we don't feel like now
Don't feel like now

Don't feel like now
Baby, I

Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody else but you
Wake up in the morning and choose
You all over and over, I do
I don't want nobody, want nobody
