

Lately, I've been tryin' to be someone else
The mirror lies, no, I can't hide
'Cause in the end
There's somethin' missin' inside
(Somethin' missin', missin', oh, there's somethin' missin')
My friends raise a glass to the things that I have
But it's bittersweet, poison tree
If it's all I wanted
Why do I still feel alone?
(Why do I still feel, I still feel alone?)

You came along in your washed-out jeans, oh-oh-oh
Stepped through the dark, found a light in me, ooh-ooh-ooh
Was a prisoner, but you set me free
And now I know I got it all

As long as I got you
As long as I got you
I don't need to be nobody else, I got nothin' to prove
As long as I got you
As long as I got you
I don't need to be nobody else, I got nothin' to prove

My whole life I've been climbin' up golden hills
Ran out of breath, lost myself
When in the end
All I wanted was love
(As long as I got you)

You came along in your washed-out jeans, oh-oh-oh
Stepped through the dark, found a light in me, ooh-ooh-ooh
Was a prisoner, but you set me free
And now I know I got it all

As long as I got you
